

Allegheny County Housing Authority Auxiliary Programs

Beverly Jewel Wallace Lovelace (BJWL)

BJWL provides after-school and summer programs six days a week for children ages 5-18. BJWL offers social, academic, recreational, and other resources for families.

Lloyd Hayden Center

Providing recreational and educational programs for children aged 6-18. The center is open to children of Harrison Township

Community Life

Community Life offers a wide range of services and care that are designed to keep seniors independent and in their homes. The LIFE program includes Day Health Centers, medical care, in-home care, and transportation

Mercy Behavioral Health

Mercy Behavioral Health provides outreach, education, assessments and referrals to residents.

Greater Pittsburgh Community Food Bank

Provides supplemental food boxes and on site food pantries

Deborah Booker Community Center

This center is open to all Highlands School District children from ages 13-18. The center provides educational, recreational, tutoring and mentoring programs.

412 Food Rescue

Partners with food retailers to bring healthy food to the communities

Head Start

Comprehensive early childhood education, health, nutrition and parent involvement services

Focus on Renewal

Focus on Renewal aims to support the people in the Stowe Township and McKees Rocks areas, through programs for all ages.